

Ocotillo District Weekly Update

June 12, 2015

Welcome to the Ocotillo District Weekly Update. I hope you enjoy the new format of my newsletter and its content.

I take this opportunity to invite you to my August Monthly Mobile Office Hours on Monday, August 3 from 5 to 6:30 p.m. at the Glendale Community Center, 5401 W. Ocotillo Rd.

In an effort to connect with residents beyond the city's normal 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. hours, I will be available once a month at various locations in the Ocotillo District. I encourage you to stop by and meet with me. No appointment is necessary.

PLEASE NOTE: Due to the 4th of July Independence Holiday, I will not host mobile office hours in July. However, I will continue to be available through my city hall office.

As a show of support for law enforcement officers, Mayor Weiers is auctioning a chance to tase him at the event with the proceeds from the auction benefiting the 100 Club of Arizona. The opening bid for the auction is $10,000.

The Community Supporting Cops event will feature patrol units, motor units, tactical units, explorer units that are the next generation of officers, and an array of other law enforcement units that train and work to keep the community safe. Barbeque and water will be on hand and available to those who attend. Donations raised at the event will benefit the 100 Club of Arizona, a non-profit that stands behind the men and women who stand behind the badge. The 100 Club provides financial assistance to law enforcement officers and their families. For more information on the Community Supporting Cops event, call at (623) 930-2260.

Free Summer Band Concerts Bring Music To Downtown Glendale Summer Evenings. The West Valley's favorite summer tradition is back for its 49th season beginning June 4 in downtown Glendale. The eight-week concert series takes place each Thursday at 8 p.m., beginning June 4 through July 23, in the Murphy Park Amphitheater, located at 58th and Glenn Dr. Music lovers of all ages will be entertained by this community band of approximately 100 musicians with its inspiring renditions of marches, polkas, movie medleys and other tunes from all over the world.

These free concerts are the perfect night out for the entire family; pack the car and bring your friends, neighbors, the whole gang! Bring lawn chairs or blankets for seating. Snacks and refreshments will be available for purchase at the concerts. For more information, including concert schedules and artist information, please call the Glendale's Special Events hotline at 623-930-2299, or visit Special Events Website.

Glendale To Host Public Meetings On Proposed Anti-Discrimination Ordinance. The City of Glendale will hold a series of public meetings to allow residents and businesses an opportunity to share their thoughts on whether the city should adopt an anti-discrimination ordinance. The Glendale City Council has expressed specific interest in hearing feedback from Glendale residents and business owners. An ordinance, if adopted, would protect the rights of Glendale citizens and visitors from discrimination in employment, housing and public accommodations. The schedule for public meetings are:
